

Mel C. relieved to be off Spice Girls

The Spice Girls singer Melanie C. is relieved to be not touring with the Spice Girls and is looking forward to doing some solo work.

Ananova.com reports that the group ended their tour prematurely and Melanie is glad to be off that hectic schedule and hinted there was some infighting.

She said, 'I don't miss the touring. It was full on. I'm looking forward to doing my own thing again. There's mixed feelings now the tour is over.'

She will release her fourth album 'This Time' April 8.

(© IANS / India eNews)