

Madonna won't sing old hits for less than $30 mn

Pop superstar Madonna has said that she will not sing her most popular hits unless she is paid 15 million pounds ($30 million).

The 49-year old said she would not sing her classics like 'Holiday' and 'Like A Virgin' unless she was paid handsomely, reports thesun.co.uk.

She said: 'I just can't (sing my hit songs), unless somebody paid me $30 million or something.'

Madonna is presently doing promotional work for her latest album 'Hard Candy', which is to be released April 29.
