

South Africa take 230-run lead at lunch

South Africa made 306 for four and took a 230-run lead over India at lunch on the second day of the second Test at the Sardar Patel Stadium in Motera here Friday.

Abraham de Villiers was batting on 102 and Jacques Kallis on 97 when the umpires called for lunch. India were all out for a paltry 76 in the first innings.

(© IANS / India eNews)