

Microsoft, Mammooty to launch Kerala e-literacy programme

Software giant Microsoft and veteran Malayalam superstar Mammooty are planning to launch an e-literacy programme in Kerala.

Mammooty told IANS Tuesday that he is in discussions with Microsoft for the launch of the statewide education project.

He is also the brand ambassador of the state-sponsored Akshaya IT programme.

Mammooty said he wants to launch the project to help make all sections of the society IT literate.
