

Victoria a nightmare, says footballer Campbell's girlfriend

Football star Sol Campbell's girlfriend Fiona Barratt has called David Beckham's wife Victoria a 'prima donna' and 'a nightmare'.

Fiona, an interior designer, described how Spice Girls singer Victoria hogged the limelight at the 2006 World Cup, thesun.co.uk reports.

Fiona said: 'They had no idea who I was...and had no idea of my background. I didn't care and got on the bus with my Financial Times and my sudoku. The non-entities had to walk out first. The higher the profile, the later they were. Of course, Queen Bee Victoria came out last, there being at least 10-15 minutes before she appeared, and her hair and make-up team were all in the lobby.'

She added: 'I sat and watched the whole charade. Victoria Beckham ... what a nightmare. She's such a prima donna.'
