

India showcases tourism products in Dubai travel mart

Minister of State for Tourism and Culture Kanti Singh Wednesday led a delegation to the Arabian Travel Mart 2008 in Dubai where a wide range of new products, including medical tourism, spas, adventure and leisure tourism, are being showcased.

Over 50 leading Indian travel trade groups are participating in the mart with the aim to make India the top tourist destination in the world.

Consul General of India Venu Rajamony officially inaugurated the Indian pavilion in Dubai May 6, a statement said here.
