

Ajay Devgan ignored Kajol's tears

When Bollywood actress Kajol, who is currently on the panel of judges of Zee TV's reality show 'Rock N Roll Family' along with husband Ajay Devgan and mother Tanuja, broke down on the sets of the show, her husband chose not to console her.

While everyone on the sets was busy preparing for the next performance, Kajol started crying on the sets for no apparent reason Monday.

Satish Dutt, the director of the show, told IANS on phone from Mumbai: 'Yes, Kajol was crying badly and everybody was there at the sets. I called Ajay and asked him what had happened to her. He said that ever since Kajol's dad has expired, she has been crying very often since she misses him a lot.'

Kajol's father, director Shomu Mukherjee, died April 10.

Dutt added that although Kajol's mother Tanuja hugged her, Ajay opted to stay away and let her calm down on her own.
