

Mithun, Ranjeeta to romance again on screen

After 22 years, the 80s hit romantic pair of Mithun Chakraborty and Ranjeeta is set to burn the silver screen again in 'Zindagi Tere Naam' - and they are confident their chemistry will work even after two decades.

'Romance has no age nor does acting,' said Ranjeeta.

The two rocked the film industry with hits like 'Wardaat', 'Tarana', 'Taqdeer Ka Baadshah', and 'Suraksha'.

Mithun, too, is excited about the project. He said: 'It takes me on a nostalgic drive and reminds me of my golden days of sharing screen space with Ranjeeta and romancing her on the screen. I am eagerly waiting for the release of this movie.'

He also compares his performance in this movie to 'Mrigya' and 'Guru'.

The credit of bringing Mithun and Ranjeeta together goes to director Ashu Trikha, who has directed films like 'Deewanapan', 'Alagh' and 'Sheesha'.

Set in Dalhousie, the film has two love stories running parallel.

(© IANS / India eNews)