

Madhya Pradesh cop seriously injured in accident

A senior police officer in Madhya Pradesh was seriously injured in a road accident in Hoshangabad district late Thursday.

Hoshangabad District Superintendent of Police A.K. Saxena, along with his driver and security guard, was injured when his car hit a tractor trolley. The three were admitted to the district hospital where their condition was stated to be serious.

(© IANS / India eNews)