

Chennai Super Kings beat Kolkata Knight Riders via D/L

Chennai Super Kings beat Kolkata Knight Riders by three runs through Duckworth-Lewis method in a rain-affected Indian Premier League match at Eden Gardens here Sunday.

Super Kings, chasing a target of 150, were 55/0 in 8 overs when duststorm accompanied by showers interrupted play. Parthiv Patel (19) and Stephen Fleming (32) were at the crease.

Play had to be finally called off after an hour and a half as there was let-up in the inclement weather. Super Kings were ahead in D/L charts and were declared the winners.

(© IANS / India eNews)