

Twelve students hurt in Agra accident

A dozen students were injured, three of them seriously, after the school bus they were travelling in overturned here Tuesday.

Students of class 9 and class 10 from BM Roy Public School were returning from sports practice when their school bus turned turtle after hitting a road divider near hotel Howard Plaza on Fatehabad road.

The police said a dozen students were hurt. Of them, three are in serious condition.

The incident took place when the bus driver tried to avoid hitting a cyclist. The injured were taken to a private nursing home.

(© IANS / India eNews)