

HR Expert Mr. Aadesh Goyal Joins MIE Educational Services as Chairman of the Board Mr. Aadesh Goyal, an expert and noted thought leader in the field of Human Resource Management, has joined MIE Educational Services Pvt. Ltd as the 'Chairman of the Board'. MIE Educational Services Pvt. Ltd. is a pioneer in its vision of bringing about an integrated approach to the vocational skills industry in India. MIE - "Making India Employable" aims to reduce the shortage of skilled manpower in India. The Company is focused on imparting skill education to the teeming youth of India, coupled with employment opportunities with leading Corporate across the country.

Aadesh has an illustrious experience of over two decades in the field of HR. He is currently the Centre Head for Gurgaon operations and Global Vice President - Human Resources with Aricent (formerly Hughes Software Systems). He would be joining MIE after transitioning out from Aricent at the end of this quarter.

Welcoming Mr. Aadesh Goyal on board Mr. Prikshit Dhandra, Co-Founder & CEO, MIE said, 'We are pleased to have Aadesh join the team and are confident of making his association as a milestone in the growth and evolution of MIE. MIE's focus is to contribute to the society in a sustainable manner and we appreciate his trust and confidence in the MIE team'.

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Aadesh Goyal said, 'Skills today are the most valued assets and demand for skilled work-force is only expected to go up. There is an expected shortage of 56 million professionals in the working age group in the developed countries by 2020. MIE has positioned itself uniquely in the space, where the company's strength lies in empowering the youth with marketable skills to make them employable employees. I am very excited about joining the MIE team which has the first mover advantage in this space and would encourage many more entrepreneurs to partner in this initiative in the coming years'.

(© India PRwire / India eNews)