

Ajay Devgan searching for good story

After turning director with 'U, Me Aur Hum', Bollywood actor Ajay Devgan is working on story ideas for his future films.

"Whenever there are breaks between shots, I come back to my vanity van and start thinking of story ideas and often have a small chat with my writers bouncing ideas. Let's see, if all goes well, I will have something interesting soon," Ajay wrote on his blog.

The actor was shooting for his film "Toonpur Ka Superhero" in Mumbai with his wife Kajol when he wrote the blog entry. He is also set to produce three films under his banner this year, one of which he would be directing as well.

He has zeroed in on Rohit Shetty of 'Sunday' and 'Golmaal' fame to direct one film for him. The third film, however, is still being scripted.

Ajay, who along with Kajol and mother-in-law Tanuja is on the jury panel for Zee TV's reality show 'Rock N Roll Family', will also be active on the acting front.

He has on his hands Shetty's 'Golmaal Returns', Kumar Mangat's 'Toonpur Ka Superhero', Prakash Jha's 'Rajniti' and Vipul Shah's 'London Dreams'.

(© IANS / India eNews)