

New Austin Powers' movie will take years, says Mike Myers

Comic actor Mike Myers is working on a new 'Austin Powers' movie and pleading with fans to be patient because it will take him years to finish it.

Contactmusic.com reports that six years after the 'Austin Powers in Goldmember' movie, fans want to see the new instalment. Myers said the fourth movie is just an idea and a long way off from being complete.

He said: 'I would love to make another one. I have to write it. It takes a long time - but I have ideas.'
