

Lucknow University teacher in Limca Book of Records

A Lucknow University teacher, Madhurima Lall, has made it to the Limca Book of Records 2008 as the 'highest qualified woman'. She has two D.Litt degrees.

With that, Uttar Pradesh too would for the first time find a mention in the Limca Book of Records.

'The Limca Book of Records has acknowledged me for my two D.Litt (Doctorate of Literature) degrees in applied economics and business administration,' an elated Lall told IANS Thursday.

A person with two D.Litt is very rare. Normally after Ph.D, a student stakes a minimum of five years to complete D.Litt, added Lall.

Lall has been teaching in the Lucknow Univesity's commerce department for the last twenty years.

It is for the first time that Uttar Pradesh has found a place in the Limca Book of Records, an official added.

(© IANS / India eNews)