

Sensex crashes again, opens with a loss of 295 points

The Indian equities market opened in deep red Friday.

The 30-share benchmark sensitive index of Bombay Stock Exchange opened with a loss of 294.06 points at 14,127.76 points.

The S and amp;P Nifty of National Stock Exchange opened at 4,315.30 points with a marginal loss of 0.65 points compared to its last close.

(© IANS / India eNews)