

Ten killed in gunfight in Egypt

Ten people were killed and 17 wounded Thursday in a gunfight in Benha, 48 km north of the Egyptian capital, a security source said.

The source said that the fight started when members of the al-Kilani family hired a wanted criminal to kick out some gangsters from their land, pledging to pay him in land.

When the al-Kilani family killed the wanted criminal instead, his family attacked al-Kilani family's house.

The source said that all casualties were from the al-Kilani family.
