

Martin credits Coldplay success to 'handsome' bassist

Chris Martin, the lead singer of Coldplay, is certain that their "handsome" bassist Guy Berryman is the only reason for their success.

Martin claims that girls and gay fans love the charming bassist, reports contactmusic.com.

The singer said: "My entire life is spent trying to push him (Berryman) forward at photo shoots. He's our packaging... He's a handsome b****d. None of us pretend that if he wasn't in the band we'd be as popular. He's responsible for all our calendar sales."
