

Gisele Bundchen was the last true supermodel: Naomi Campbell

Naomi Campbell has slammed the current top models, saying that Gisele Bundchen was the last true supermodel.

Campbell feels the supermodel label is given too easily and that most who claim they are supermodels are not really so, contactmusic.com reports.

She said: 'Models need to earn their stripes - I just think the term is used a little too loosely. Kate Moss is obviously a supermodel but, after Gisele, I don't think there's been one.'
