

LeAnn Rimes getting more emotional with age

Country singer LeAnn Rimes says she has trouble finishing songs on stage as she gets older.

Contactmusic.com reports that the 26-year-old has been singing ever since she was 13 and she thinks all those years of performing have made her emotional.

Rimes said: 'There is so much more emoting that goes into it. When I was a little kid, I was always an actress, really playing a part.

'These are real experiences. These are my words and these are my feelings. There's just this emotion that goes into it. I go onstage sometimes and can't get through songs... it's a completely different connection,' she added.
