

Terrorists roamed across India with fake voter ID cards: police

Terrorists behind the recent bombings in Indian cities had obtained fake voter identity cards and had roamed across the country, Delhi Police said Saturday.

"Saif and Zeeshan had made fake voter ID cards in the name of Rahul Sharma and Pankaj respectively and travelled to Gujarat on the fake identities," Joint Police Commissioner (Special Cell) Karnail Singh told a press briefing.

"They also availed mobile phone connections on the basis of these fake ID cards. We have seized mobile phones in which they have clicked the video of the (May 13)
