

Soul singer Lemar wants to sing with Leona Lewis

Soul singer Lemar has already worked with British singer Joss Stone and now has his eyes on Leona Lewis.

Talking at a recent playback of his new album 'The Reason', Lemar said: "Leona is a friend and I'd love her to be in one of my videos. We have the same management so we'll see."

Lewis was the winner of the British talent show "X-Factor", reports mirror.co.uk. She is one of the few British solo artistes to have made a breakthrough in the US.
