

Australia 193/5 at stumps, lead by 263 runs on day four

Australia extended their lead by 263 runs at stumps on Day four of their first cricket Test against India at M. Chinnaswamy stadium here Sunday.

Australia were 193 for five at the end of the day's play.

Shane Watson (32 batting) and Brad Haddin (28 batting) survived a hostile Indian attack which knocked off five Australian wickets after the hosts were all out for 360 in their first innings.
