

My character in '99' has a wild streak: Soha

Actress Soha Ali Khan, whose career is going through a dry spell, is now looking forward to her upcoming venture '99' and says that her character in the film has a 'wild streak'.

'I play the character of a girl called Pooja, who is a lobby manager of a hotel floor. She is stylish, confident and vivacious and has a wild streak,' Soha told IANS.

'In the film, two conmen played by Kunal Khemu and Cyrus Broacha enter the character's life and since she wants some excitement in her life, she happily joins them. She is a fun character at heart,' she added.

The romantic comedy will hit screens in May.
