

Why wasn't I cast with my wife before, asks Rohit Roy

Bollywood actor Rohit Roy is extremely excited about being paired with his wife Mansi Joshi in Sanjay Gupta's 'Alibaug', but wonders why they weren't cast together for any project all these years.

'I was surprised that no one had still cast the two of us together for a film, but I guess the saying that 'you save the best for the last' suits us best now,' Rohit told IANS.

Rohit, who plays a doctor who cheats on his wife in 'Alibaug', says: 'I have always believed that Mansi is the actor in the family. Actually I am the star and she is the actor.'
