

Megan Fox can't cope with criticism

American actress Megan Fox says she can't handle criticism and lives like a recluse to avoid reading negative comments.

'I'd be a complete lunatic, drug-addled and out of my mind. Instead I stay in and ignore it all,' femalefirst.co.uk quoted Megan Fox as saying.

'There are those who have a Google Alert on themselves and read everything everyone says and then there are those who pretend it isn't happening. I'm one of the latter. I could never pore over what's said about me,' added Fox.
