

Lohan lip-locks with Aniston's boyfriend Butler

Controversial actress Lindsay Lohan, who is looking for some fun, was spotted kissing Jennifer Aniston's boyfriend Gerard Butler.

Lohan was present at the opening of the Sol Kerzner Mazagan Beach Resort in Morocco, mirror.co.uk reports. She drew Butler away while Michael Jackson's hit 'Billie Jean' was playing. She then ended up kissing Butler and flirted with him a little more and continued dancing with him.

She said: 'He's hot, he's mine! I've got no ring on my finger so I'm gonna have lots of fun. This is the most romantic place in the world after all.'

'I'm fed up of all the drama. I just want to find someone who loves me back. I feel like I'm going to have a heart attack every time I think about the break-up. I came here to get away from it all. I'm ready to have fun now.'
