

Jackson's daughter gets haircut at top celebrity salon

Accompanied by her brothers, late pop star Michael Jackson's 11-year-old daughter Paris visited Andy Lecompte's salon in Los Angeles for a haircut and to get her nails painted black.

Other celebrities who frequent this salon include Madonna, Britney Spears, Jennifer Lopez and actress Gwyneth Paltrow, thesun.co.uk reported. Paris was accompanied by her brothers Prince Michael and Blanket and their bodyguards.

Paris got her hair washed, cut and styled and also had her nails painted black.

Other clients present there described the girl as 'weird'. One client said, 'They weren't like normal children at all because they seemed to have no joy or playfulness about them. I know they recently lost their father but their complete lack of emotion meant it was like watching three robots.'
