

I always wanted to get married in a temple: Eesha

Bollywood actress Eesha Koppikhar, who tied the knot with restaurateur Timmy Narang at a temple, says that she always wanted to get married in a temple.

'Temple is something really pure, it's really nice to get married in a temple. I always wanted to get married in a temple,' Eesha told reporters Sunday at the reception.

Unlike other stars' marriage, Timmy and Eesha kept the ceremony simple and low profile.

'It was very much a family and intimate affair. I think one has to cherish and enjoy private moments so it was kept low profile intentionally,' said Timmy.

The couple is heading to the Caribbean for their honeymoon.

'There is a beautiful set of islands called Turks and Caicos Islands in the Caribbean... it is a very romantic place. We will go there by the end of the year,' said Timmy.

Actors Prem Chopra, Manoj Kumar, Chunky Pandey, Tulip Joshi and Celina Jaitley were among those who attended the reception.

Eesha became a known name in the industry after her hit song 'Khallas' in Ram Gopal Varma's underworld drama 'Company'. Later she shared screen space with Shah Rukh Khan in 'Don - The Chase Begins Again'.

She also featured in movies like 'Ek Vivaah... Aisa Bhi', 'Salaam-e-Ishq', 'Maine Pyaar Kyun Kiya?', 'Kyaa Kool Hai Hum' and 'China Town'.

(© IANS / India eNews)