

Trawick didn't turn down Spears marriage proposal

Britney Spears, who is currently touring Australia, is happy and her agent-boyfriend Jason Trawick hasn't rejected her wedding proposal, clarifies a source close to the couple.

Reports that Trawick abruptly left the country after rejecting her wedding proposal are '100 percent absolutely false', says the source. 'There was no proposal and they were never engaged,' people.com quoted the source as saying.

The couple, who know each other for more than six months, had spent time together across Australia with Spears' two sons -- Preston and Jayden.

When Trawick headed back to Los Angeles instead of spending the holidays, it was simply a matter of logistics. 'Jason spent more time in Australia than originally planned. They are very happy,' said the source.
