

'Aishwarya' leads Kannada audio race

The 'Aishwarya' album continues to lead the Kannada audio race with brisk sales in major markets like Bangalore and Mysore.

The top five Kannada albums are:

1. 'Aishwarya': This is a big hit for music director Rajesh Ramanath. 'Ella Ok, Maduve Yaake' and the title song are chartbusters.

2. 'Sevanthi Sevanthi': The music of this silver-jubilee film, composed by

S.A. Raj Kumar, are extremely popular, especially 'Jaaji Mallige Hoovu'. The songs have a folk flavour to them.

3. 'Thananam Thananam': Lyricist K. Kalyan, who scored wonderful music for

'Chandramukhi Pranasakhi', is back with a bang in this film. 'Kande Kande Gopalana', 'Cheluvantha' and 'Thananam' are popular.

4. 'Jothe Jotheyalli': The album, composed by new music director V.

Harikrishna, has been received well mainly because of its variety. The catchy songs include 'Oh, Gunavantha' and 'Barthaare Barthaare'.

5. 'Sirivantha': The lyrics by director S. Narayan and the music by S.A. Raj

Kumar are quite appealing. 'Megha Megha' rendered by Shankar Mahadevan is popular, though the song has not been included in the film. 'Yaaro Yaaro Aa Nalvaru' and 'Badiyithu Sidilu' sung by S.P. Balasubramanyam have touched a chord among listeners.
