

Allen's song brought boyfriend back

Singer Lily Allen got back with her ex-boyfriend after he heard the song she wrote about their relationship.

The song 'Littlest Things' from the album 'Alright, Still' revealed that she had problems getting over her break-up with Seb Chew.

'(The song) got me my boyfriend back. We split up in January, but he must have heard the song and realised how special I was,' Allen was quoted as saying by contactmusic.com.
