

I'll fight BCCI injustice: Dalmiya

Former Indian cricket board president Jagmohan Dalmiya Tuesday vowed to contest his expulsion, terming it an 'illegitimate' decision that went against the principles of natural justice.

'I was hanged without a fair trial. I will take legal recourse within 14 days,' he told reporters here, three days after being expelled from the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI) for life for alleged misappropriation of funds.

'I have no interest in any post or position in BCCI. I am fighting for my pride and justice,' he added.

Dalmiya said he had submitted written explanations before the board's special general meeting on Saturday in
