

Flights normal in Delhi after night of fog disruptions

Flights took off on schedule at the Delhi airport Thursday morning with no impeding fog after several in-coming flights were delayed by hours or diverted the night before due to a heavy blanket of mist.

According to Delhi International Airport authorities, a number of flights Wednesday night were diverted to places like