

Jiah shakes a leg in 'Nishabd' music video

Young actress Jiah Khan is making waves even before the release of her debut film 'Nishabd'. After crooning a song for the film's music video, Jiah, who is a trained dancer, has now turned choreographer for it.

While shooting for the video, Jiah's dance movements impressed the choreographer so much that he bade her to do her own thing for a sequence, say witnesses. Jiah obliged with some belly dancing and hip shaking, just like Latin sensation Shakira.

The music video is all set to scorch the silver screen soon, according to those who sneaked a peek at the video. The wait to watch Jiah make her moves will be worth it, they add.
