

Britney Spears goes completely bald

Britney Spears has just shocked the whole world by shaving her head Kojak style and going completely bald.

Spears was photographed at a tattoo shop 'Body and Soul' in Los Angeles, getting a tattoo reportedly of a pair of red and pink lips on her wrist, reports www.Hollywood.tv.

The pop diva could be seen inside the tattoo parlour with her head fully exposed, but as she left the shop her bodyguard led her straight to a waiting SUV. Spears had her head covered with a hooded sweatshirt to hide her new noggin.

The sidewalk outside the shop was filled with fans, onlookers and paparazzi. Some fans that were interviewed after Spears departed declared the new look less than flattering.

Also sources tell www.Hollywood.tv that Britney's mother is devastated. 'They are in a major intervention mode. Her mom is constantly crying, her family is freaking out.'
