

SAARC rally flagged off by heads of states

The SAARC car rally, which has already covered some 7,000 km across four countries, was Tuesday flagged off by leaders of all eight participating South Asian countries as their regional summit began here.

The fleet of 30 cars reached the Indian capital Monday to a rousing welcome. They will now go