

Design your own Wrangler T-Shirt only at Myntra.com

Myntra.com, a consumer internet start-up focusing on the on-demand personalized gifting and merchandise space in India, announced that they have acquired a direct-to-garment printing machine. Myntra.com is the first online personalized merchandise shop in India to adopt direct printing on all T-Shirts that can print even small runs at reasonable cost, eliminating time consuming adjustments. The digital printing gives the end user an opportunity to print a unique design on every t-shirt which was not possible with traditional methods like screen printing.

In addition to this, Myntra.com is also the only online vendor in India authorized to print on Wrangler/Lee T-shirts. The company has entered into an exclusive agreement with Arvind Fashions which allows it to print on-demand on Wrangler/ Lee T-Shirts. These high quality T-shirts along with direct printing help Myntra.com offer the best quality custom printed T-shirts in India, each manufactured to the user's specifications.
